FROM THE PRESIDENT...

Spring/Summer 2010

Our Page Alumni and Friends Association is beginning its fifth year. The impact we have had at Page is felt from one end of the campus to the other, the result of your membership donations and the work of alumni, parents, students, and friends. The renewed contacts folks have made with old friends are numerous.

This past year we

- Gave five student scholarships
- Continued work on the Alma Pinnix Bank, including adding a drip line with a timing system
- Bought a new flagpole, US flag, NC flag, and Page flag
- Furnished the new Study Lounge area in the Media Center
- Published and mailed two newsletters

Please read about our ambitious plan-to-make-a-plan for the Auditorium, and contact us if you can help in any way.

About membership.....As our fiscal year is July 1-June 30, it is time to join or renew your membership with your tax-deductible donation. We believe in our Association and its mission, but know some of you may have no interest in it. Only 5% of folks receiving the newsletter have joined this past year.

Therefore, we ask you to do one of two things:

- Join our Association at the level of your choosing..... OR
- Contact me at sgtysinger@triad.rr.com or 336-288-5590 with a request to remove your name from our mailing list.

We invite you to join us at meetings, on line, and through memberships as we work to carry out our Mission Statement:

To connect with the past, strengthen the present, and build for the future of Page High School through support of and participation in areas of academic, cultural, athletic, and social life

Meeting dates are scheduled below, usually in the Page Media Center, but the venue can change. The September 27 meeting will definitely be in the Media Center so we can all see the new Study Lounge. Go Pirates!

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

The 2009-2010 school year was a great year for Page High School. Our school grew in numbers to house approximately 1850 students, making us the second largest school in Guilford County (behind Northwest).

The most exciting venture that we began was developing a plan to upgrade the athletic complex. As part of a prior bond package, Page will receive well over a million dollars. We used the master plan that was developed several years ago and reassessed some changing needs. Our goal was to use the money in a way that would most effectively serve the community for many years to come. The plan has now been completed and we expect work to begin following the 2010 football season with the completion date of 2012. We look forward to keeping you updated on the progress of these capital improvements.

The Alumni Association was, once again, very active in the life of Page. Today a new flagpole is being installed in front of the school. This was made possible through funding from your Association. The Alumni and Friends student scholarships were presented at our Senior Awards Program in May to five very deserving students. In addition, our media center is undergoing some updating and renovation to be more student-friendly through collaboration between the school and the Alumni.

We at Page are dedicated to helping maintain the strong traditions of excellence in scholarship, the arts, athletics, and citizenship. Some notable accomplishments include:

- $9.1 million in scholarship money, an increase of almost $2 million from the prior year
- Acceptance to more than 90 universities and colleges by our senior class
- 41% of the senior class Honor Graduates, with one Presidential Scholar and eleven NC scholars
- 887 Advanced Placement Tests administered (results are pending)
- A growing, thriving IB Program, opening the 2010 year with almost 200 prospective and diploma IB students
- State Soccer Champion (boys)
- Three state winners in Technology competition who will move on to Nationals
- Gains in state End-of-Course scores for the third consecutive year
- Teacher Teresa McNeill awarded the North Carolina Teaching Excellence Award, positioning her as a current finalist at the national level
- Winner of the Wachovia Cup for overall athletic program excellence for the Metro 4A Conference

We are very proud of our students' and staff's accomplishments, and we will continue to maintain Page's good name in all that we do.

Marilyn Foley, Principal

SRO AARON GRIFFITHS NAMED GREENSBORO "OFFICER OF THE YEAR"

School Resource Officer Aaron Griffiths (fondly known as OG by the Page family) was named "Officer of the Year" by the Greensboro Police Department for the outstanding work he does at Page. He is a friendly face, a calming presence, an authority figure, a guiding hand to the Page family. Principal Foley says, "We are very fortunate to have OG here at Page. He has very quickly become entrenched into Pirate life and is visible at most extracurricular events. OG is well respected and cares deeply about helping and protecting all students and staff." OG shares a bit about himself.

I graduated from Guilford College with a Bachelor of Science Degree. I then spent seven years in the army as an Infantry Paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne Division. I have been a police officer for 13 years. I worked as a detective undercover in the vice-narcotics division. I worked on the south side of Greensboro and trained 23 rookies while on the job there.

What I like most about being an SRO is getting to know the kids. I have seen these kids do amazing things, and they have restored my hope in the youth of today. I attend a lot of sporting events, plays, musicals, and other functions at Page High School. I attend several clubs with the kids and try to encourage them to be better people. I often provide snacks and drinks for the kids on a weekly basis. I have seen the fastest way to earn a kid's trust is through his belly.

My proudest moment was when I won "Officer of the Year." I thought it was very nice to be recognized for what I do. And it was very validating to see that the Police Department places such importance on the work SROs do with our youth within the schools.

2010 ALUMNI AND FRIENDS SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Jeff Queen ('88), Paul Wingate ('88), and Stephanie Keaney ('93) served on this year's scholarship committee. As expected, we had another fantastic pool of applicants for the 2010 Page Alumni and Friends Scholarships. This year, we were able to offer five $750 scholarships, thanks to your generous support of the Association. After carefully reading all of the applications and interviewing the top candidates, we selected these five seniors.

By Stephanie Keaney ('93)

JACOB BUFFINGTON..... I am very proud to be the recipient of a Page Alumni and Friends Scholarship. I have spirited memories from my time at Page. During my four years, I was active on the varsity swim team, FBLA, TSA, and Page Playmakers. I was a member of the National Honor Society and was an AP Scholar.

Outside of school, I was active in Boy Scouts, attaining the rank of Eagle Scout. Many of my hobbies were born from my years in scouting: camping, hiking, fishing, and volunteering in the community. I have spent time the last two summers hiking 100 miles of the Appalachian Trail and am looking forward to many more. I am attending NC State this fall and plan to major in Chemical or Environmental Engineering. Thank you for your generous support!

CAROLINE BYERS..... I will be attending UNC Wilmington to pursue my interest in nursing, hopefully in the field of pediatric oncology. At Page I was involved in student council for four years and Yearbook for three. My senior year I held the positions of Student Body President and Editor-in-Chief. Holding these positions enabled me to see and know a lot about Page and to be able to better appreciate all it has to offer. Playing lacrosse for four years gave me a different perspective of Page than the organizational duties I held.

I have fond memories of my four years at Page. I treasure the athletic spirit and pride, the unity of being a Pirate, and the life-long friendships I created there. It is hard to pick something that stands out the most because with the Page/Grimsley rivalry, spirit week, and student council, it's hard not to love it all! Even a couple of months after graduating, I've reflected on how important my four years were to me, with getting involved and finding a special place there. I developed close relationships with many of the administrators, teachers, and coaches. I will truly miss the comfort of that school and miss the feeling of being a Page Pirate.

JONAH CORNETT..... I have lived in Greensboro for nine years. I work at Brassfield Cinema and volunteer at Off'n Running and Greensboro Urban Ministries. I will be attending Carolina Cross Connections with my church youth group this summer as a service project. While at Page High School I lettered in cross-country, swimming, and spring track. I also enjoyed culinary classes at Weaver.

My most special times at Page were probably with the cross-country team. Since my brother is two years older than I and ran cross-country, I attended all his meets and really felt like a part of the team for six years. I was lucky enough to know Coach Osborne before I officially started on the team. He has been the best coach, teacher, and friend. He is very knowledgeable about this sport and shares that with his runners. He has been a great mentor and I will miss him. In the fall I will be attending Lesley University in Cambridge, Massachusetts. I will be a part of a two-year program that will prepare me to live on my own and work in the airport industry. I am very excited about starting this new chapter in my life. I want to thank the Page High School Alumni and Friends Association for awarding me the scholarship. I am very grateful and will use these monies toward my education.

CHANDLER LEIK..... I will be attending UNC-Chapel Hill this fall. I was an active student during my time at Page, participating in Student Council, numerous varsity sports, and various clubs.

My fondest Page memories involve school spirit. I will never forget standing in the middle of the Student Section at a home game for any sport, and looking in front and behind at the pool of red and black. Everyone is cheering loudly, laughing, and having a great time while encouraging their fellow classmates to succeed. The support given by our student body for any Page event – whether a game, a play, or an academic competition – is truly unique.

The week of the Page/Grimsley football game is especially memorable because it is a time when the whole student body unites. From dressing up as a "grit" to dancing around a giant bonfire, it is a week of much anticipated fun and cohesion when any differences are put aside. It is a magical feeling when the Page football team is playing their hearts out while hundreds of Page students are cheering wildly. Page students and staff are definitely irreplaceable when it comes to school spirit!

ANDREW WALKER..... I will be going to Northwestern University in the fall. I played on the Page Lacrosse team for all four years of high school, and ran track freshman and sophomore years. I have participated in the National Junior Classical league, Science Olympiad, and National Honor Society. Also, I have ridden in the Tour to Tanglewood (a fundraiser for MS awareness and research) the past seven years and have helped build a house with Constructores Para Cristo for the past three.

Page is the place that has been instrumental in helping mold my personality and identity into something that is singular to me. I will always remember and be grateful for the education, guidance, and friendships I had at Page.

RICHARD MONTANA REELS FOR RESEARCH

The second annual Reelin' for Research Offshore Fishing Tournament took place on Saturday May 1, 2010, off the coast of Morehead City, NC. The purpose was to raise money for the NC Children's Promise for Cancer Research, the fund-raising arm of the NC Children's Hospital in Chapel Hill.

The origin of this tournament goes back several years when my friend since birth, Richard Montana ('98), called up the old gang from Page to arrange a fishing trip. At that time the only goal of the trip was to have a good time, with the possibility of it becoming an "annual event."

This, however, did not go quite as planned. Richard's father, Tony, was diagnosed with cancer a couple of years later, passing away less than a year after his original diagnosis. Tony's death was a very tragic blow to Richard, his mother Margaret, his sister Anne Margaret ('95), and all of Tony's family and friends. And obviously fishing with high school buddies wasn't exactly top priority for any of us during the months of Tony's illness and the weeks/months following his death.

However, after Tony's death we all put our heads together and figured out how we could convert our annual fishing trip into more than just a simple get-together for a few old high school buddies. We decided to turn the trip into a fund-raising event that stood for something that Tony would be proud of – fighting kids' cancer! Throughout his illness, Tony told Richard that he had lived a good, long life and was thankful for it. But it always upset Tony when he thought about the young children who were stricken with cancer, and how unfair it was that their lives would be cut so short.

Using Tony's hopes and dreams as their cause, Richard and Anne gathered a small group of friends and formed the steering committee for the Reelin' for Research Offshore Fishing Tournament, and the rest would become history.

The first ever Reelin' for Research Tournament took place in May of 2009, and it was a huge success. A fleet of 16 boats (six anglers per boat) weathered the ten-foot seas for a great day of fishing. After all was said and done, we raised just over $26,000 to donate to the NC Children's Promise.

Fast forward to present day, and I know Tony is definitely smiling down on us all! The second annual Reelin' for Research is now in the books, and this one surpassed all of our hopes and expectations. Twenty-nine boats participated in this year's RFR, and our donation tally of $70,000+ has almost tripled that of the 2009 tournament!

Richard, right of center

Reelin' for Research has become something so much larger than we ever would have dreamed, and it's definitely something that we are all extremely proud to be a part of. In just two years, we have raised almost $100,000 for the NC Children's Promise; and the tournament has grown from a mostly Greensboro-based group of participants (many PHS alumni) to a tournament that includes participants from all over the state of North Carolina!

Committee members responsible for the lion's share of the work are founder Richard Montana ('98), Allen Cooke ('98), Brian Cooke ('95), Anne Margaret Montana Correll ('95), Sarah Hauser ('00), Ashley Watkins ('99), Courtney Boger, Paull Boger, Abbey Cooke, Chris Craven, Mike Kilpatrick, Seth Marshall, Alan Oakley, and Laura Williston.

We are grateful for generous sponsors, donors, and participants and invite all interested in helping out or supporting our first-weekend-in-May annual tournament to get in touch with us. For more details, visit our web site at www.reelinforresearch.org. Join us as we "continue to fight together to land a cure for the kids"! And we are grateful for the part Richard has played in making it all happen!

PARKER WOOD WHITE ('97)....HELPING THE WORLD, ONE CHILD AT A TIME

After 1997 Page alumna Parker Wood White graduated from UNC in 2001, she headed to Washington, DC. For the next six and-a-half years she worked in the political arena for Senators Jesse Helms, Bill Frist, and Richard Burr. She worked as a Legislative Correspondent, on Republican elections, and in the Capitol. She was Senator Burr's scheduler until the day before her daughter Avery was born in Arlington, VA, in July of 2007. In early 2008 she, her husband Robert, and Avery moved back to Greensboro. Her son, Perrin Robert White, was born May 26, 2010.

Parker with husband Robert, daughter Avery, and son Perrin

Becoming a mother gave Parker an entirely new outlook on life. She realized she had to do something to help children in her community.

Once I had Avery, my entire perspective changed, and I knew that I wanted to do something that would have a big impact on children. I realized how helpless Avery was and how much she depended on me. It made me sad to think of all the parents that wanted to give their children everything (including food) and didn't have the ability to provide for them. I couldn't imagine my children ever being hungry, and I wanted to help out other families that need that extra helping hand.

The more I looked for a way to make an impact in my community, the more fully I understood how important good nutrition is to the overall well-being of a child. Hungry children are not ready to learn.

Half of the Guilford County Schools children are on free or reduced lunch. Many of these go home to little or no food over the weekend. Statistics show that when they return to school on Monday and again are fed, it takes 2 ½ days (until Wednesday afternoon) for them to be ready to learn. So basically these children are receptive to learning only half of the time they are in school.

I had heard about Backpack programs around the country whose purpose is to provide nutrition to children, and I knew that there was not a countywide one here. Although some local churches are doing an amazing job of helping students in local schools, Guilford County lacked an organized program. So our BackPack Beginnings program was born. Our goal is to feed the hungry children of Guilford County by providing school-aged children at risk of hunger with backpacks full of nutritious, child-friendly foods to take home over the weekends during the school year.

BackPack Beginnings is a part of a national Feeding America program and was launched in Guilford County in January 2010 at Wiley Elementary and Shiloh Head Start, feeding 50 elementary students and 15 preschoolers, with plans to feed more than 100 students in the fall. In March, our own BackPack Beginnings became a Charitable Purpose Fund under the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro. By partnering with Second Harvest Food Bank and Guilford Child Development, we have been able to garner community support and interest while feeding children at a lower cost.

Our main expense is supplying food and backpacks to these children. Picking up the food, then filling and distributing the backpacks, is done by volunteers. As we receive more money, we'll be able to increase the number of children and schools we are able to serve.

You can be a part of the solution by donating online at <https://netcommunity.cfgg.org/SSLPage.aspx?pid=184>. When you fill out this form, choose "BackPack Food Program for Kids" from the drop-down menu next to "Designation."

- For $5, you can feed a child for the weekend.
- For $150, you can feed a child for the school year.
- For $8000, you can feed a class of children (50 children) for the entire school year.

By feeding these children, we help them become happier, healthier, and better educated members of our Greensboro community. And thank you in advance for your support!

By Parker Wood White ('97)

ON THE WAY TO A BEAUTIFUL PAGE

I am a Senior Girl Scout and a rising junior at Page, and I am working on my Gold Award project. The Gold Award is the highest award in Girl Scouting. It requires many hours of work and must benefit the community. For my project, I will be re-landscaping the front of G-Wing and helping with the upkeep of the Alma Pinnix Hill. Page High School is viewed and used every day by lots of people, and many of us would like it to be a pleasing site.

The main focus of my project is in front of G-Wing where, with the help of landscape designer Alexa Aycock, mother of two Page alumni, I will be revamping the landscape. Right now, there are many weeds, little mulch, and mismatched plants. When I am finished, I hope that students will enjoy eating lunch and hanging out there. I will also be weeding, fertilizing, and spreading mulch on the hill. In addition to this, I am creating a "Page Beautification" Club at school to get other students involved in maintaining the landscape. We will work on projects that will improve the appearance of Page. I would like the outside of the school to reflect the great things that are happening on the inside. My goal is to make Page an even more welcoming place!

WORK ON THE ALMA PINNIX HILL CONTINUES

The Page Alumni and Friends and PTSA have collaboratively funded the restoration of the Alma Pinnix Hill these past two years. Most of the plants we put in the ground last fall on the Cone Blvd. side of the hill survived the harsh winter. There were a few exceptions, but we were generally pleased with the survival rate. After all, we had an extended harsh freeze several weeks after we planted. Despite spreading a fair amount of mulch last fall, weeds continue to require maintenance (and probably always will).

June brought a number of scorching hot days; therefore, a significant amount of manual watering with hoses, sprinklers, and buckets was taking place. At the annual meeting in May, Page alumnus John McPhail ('86) offered to help with the installation of a drip line. His more-than-equitable quote made it possible for our Association to have a timed irrigation system installed on Mrs. Pinnix's Hill! Perhaps even she would be envious! With all of the hot days, the installation of this system could not be more timely!

Our Hill also made the front page of the Greensboro News & Record. Jim Schlosser ('61) wrote an article about Alma Pinnix that included a photograph of the Hill, when it looked its best in early spring. All who have volunteered on the Hill should be proud that their efforts have brought back immortal memories of the woman who originally beautified the hillside. Thanks Mrs. Pinnix, volunteers, Alumni and Friends Association, and PTSA.

NEW FLAGPOLE INSTALLED

The Page Alumni and Friends purchased a new flagpole that will fly a larger American and NC flag, as the old flagpole (at left) had seen better days! Thanks to the GCS for the installation. See the winter edition of the newsletter to see the flags flying.

NOW LET'S UPDATE THE AUDITORIUM

Completed in 1962, four years after the school opened, the Page High School auditorium has now fallen into disrepair and needs some attention. Not only is the auditorium a part of Page's history, but it is still among the most widely used rooms within the school today. Great new carpet was installed last summer. And the lighting and sound systems have had minimal updating along with the addition of acoustic panels. But outdated systems are subpar at best. This is surely not the way we want to project Page into the community.

While we have so much to offer in the way of high quality, award-winning, student-run productions and musical performances, we have a space that is sorely lacking in comfort and the accoutrements of a fine theater. We would like to undertake an ambitious renovation plan that would make the Page venue attractive for community concerts, musical productions, and other theatrical uses. This vision includes but is not limited to partnering with outside organizations such as Community Theater of Greensboro, The Shakespeare Festival, Greensboro Symphony, or even the Eastern Music Festival. In a nutshell, we could make our auditorium a magnet for theatrical and musical performance within Greensboro. The additional attention from community partners could augment student groups such as the Page Playmakers, Page Band, and the Page Orchestra. To do this, we must start with a broad vision and a "sky's the limit" attitude. If need be, we can always do it in phases, but we must start with a plan.

In the year 2012, Page High School Auditorium will be celebrating 50 years! Wouldn't it be great to launch a refurbishment project that would coincide with the 50th anniversary? New seats, lights, sound system, paint, and a renovation of the auditorium bathroom facilities could make Page a destination for many events throughout our community. We could host many of the All-State, All-County, and All-District events for music and theater in a venue that is second to none! Page's reputation for academic success can be strengthened through public events that highlight our performance-oriented programs. Many great accomplishments occur at Page beyond the realm of sports teams and academics, and we need to tell our story!

The auditorium has long been the nexus of Page student life, but now it can become a symbol for the greater community. What we need is for ALL Page alumni and friends to help us make this happen.....and it is not all about money. Do you have expertise in sound systems? Do you have connections through business, church, or other organizations that might be helpful to this effort?

You are invited to jump in here and help us formulate a plan to take our auditorium into the 21st century! If you have connections with builders, architects, designers, carpenters, furniture manufacturers, or sound companies, then please step forward to help jumpstart this effort. If you have never been involved with Page Alumni and Friends and if you have never contributed monetarily, then this is a chance for you to make something large happen. Think of what you would like to see incorporated in a performance complex and let us know!

A wise man once said, "Dreams are today's answers to tomorrow's questions." Let's dream big for the Page students of tomorrow.

PAGE MEDIA CENTER STUDY LOUNGE

Several years ago, as part of a bond issue, the Media Center was expanded. Lovely carpet was laid, and the huge area was filled with great new tables and chairs.

This year, Librarians Jennifer Kunka and Lori Warner decided the space could be more inviting and user-friendly. They rearranged bookcases and furniture, while handling every book in the media center at least once. They created a more inviting entrance. But they felt it was still lacking something.

So they set about planning a space with sectional seating and bistro-like tables and chairs. This proposed space is an area where students can sit and quietly visit, use their wireless laptops, read, or study.

Mrs. Foley and the rest of the administration supported the proposed plan and agreed to cover the expenses for replacing the flooring in the 12x23-foot space with vinyl that looks like hardwood flooring. This will set the space apart from the rest of the Media Center. The Page Alumni and Friends Association offered to fund the purchase of the furniture for the Study Lounge. The furniture was selected for teen appeal, functionality, and durability.

The flooring replacement and painting should take place during the month of July, and the furniture should arrive by early August. If all goes according to plans, the Media Center Study Lounge should be ready when the 2010-2011 school year begins! (Look for photos in the fall/winter edition of The PAGE.)

GREENSBORO YOUTH SOCCER HIGH SCHOOL SOCCER SHOWCASE

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY ENHANCES COMMUNICATION AND LEARNING

Page High School continues to move forward in the use of 21st Century skills for teaching and learning. This year, Guilford County Schools began providing Gaggles student email accounts for all middle and high school students. Gaggles is a filtered and monitored email that includes options for teachers to create blogs for their classes, as well as homework drop boxes and discussion boards.

All teachers also have web pages to facilitate communication with students and parents. The school web page, located at http://schoolcenter.gcsnc.com/page\_high, is the place to find out about almost everything happening at Page. The web page provides information about academic programs, clubs, athletics, parent and alumni groups, and a calendar of events. There are also links to the counseling department's page and the media center. The graduation project handbook and other important documents are accessible for downloading from school or home.

Another way Page is now providing information is through our new Twitter account. Follow @pagehighpirates on Twitter and get instant updates about things happening at school. Click the link on our web page to sign up!

Page teachers and students are excited about our new iPod Touch cart. The cart is a mobile unit of 30 iPod Touches available for checkout out by teachers for use in their classrooms. The iPods have apps for different subject areas and can be used for Internet research with wireless access throughout the school.

To further enhance our use of 21st Century skills for teaching and learning, Page has invited David Warlick, an expert on Web 2.0 technologies in education, to provide staff development on August 20. The information Mr. Warlick provides will enable us to use the emerging technologies and web-based resources in new and exciting ways as we prepare our students to live and work in today's global society.

JOHN ISNER

John in victory!

The world watched 23rd seed John Isner ('03) as he won his first match at Wimbledon. This 2003 Page Alumnus defeated Nicolas Mahut in a multi-record-setting match.....longest in history at eleven hours and five minutes; most games won by a single player at Wimbledon at 92; most aces served by a single player at 113. The match was played June 22, 23, and 24.

By the time his second match came around on June 25, John had little time to recoup any energy and was defeated by Thiemo de Bakker. But his history-making match landed him on "Good Morning America," on "The Late Show with David Letterman," on the NY Yankees field throwing out the first pitch, and on the ESPYs winning for his "Best Record-Breaking Performance."

Congratulations, John. We're so proud!

Looking for a lost yearbook? Are you looking to replace a lost yearbook? There are some extras from various years. Call Page at 336-370-8200, ask for the yearbook room, and leave a message. If you're lucky and the year you are looking for is there, the cost is $50 if we ship or $40 if you come by the school to pick it up. The cost of the 2010 yearbook is still $70.

A PAGE PIRATE'S MEMORIES

Tiger Butler shares memories of his days at Page. He brought joy to those around him; and years after graduating, he was known to stand up in the middle of the Page stands at the football game and break out in song! Many in the Triad area have probably heard him at a party with his band, "The RubberBand."

Some of my fondest memories are of driving the school bus and wrestling. I truly believe that driving that bus made me into a morning person. Wrestling was a real confidence-builder and taught me respect for others. And then there was the Mr. Page Pirate pageant, filled with lots of laughs!

I had some wonderful teachers: especially Ms. Mini Lou Raper in orchestra, Mr. Lyndsay in drama, and Mr. Winfield in English. Mr. Clendenin has to be THE BEST PRINCIPAL TO EVER WALK PAGE'S HALLS! I love and highly respect many staff members because they played a very significant role in my upbringing: Mr. Paul Puryear and Mr. Richardson, former bus supervisors; Coach Page and Coach Starling, just to name a few.

I now sing in a band, "The RubberBand." We perform about 100 shows a year, including weddings, frat parties, private parties, and much more. I am also a photographer (TigerVisionPhotography/TigerButler Photography), doing weddings, portraits, promo shots, and events. I also play guitar in church and above all, I love to make people laugh!

I only see about a handful of former classmates every now and then, and I'm so very sorry that we've lost some Pirates sooner than we thought we would. My brothers and sisters also are Page graduates and we love sitting around telling stories about our years at Page. I am Truly Glad To Say That I Am A Proud Graduate of Walter Hines Page Senior High School - Class of 1980 Yaaaaaaay : )!!!

Michael Renne ('03) has been living and teaching near Shanghai in Sozhou, China, since January 2009. His students' age levels span early elementary through high school seniors.

The Fifth annual Page/Grimsley Golf Rivalry Reunion Golf Tournament will be played October 8th at Bryan Park. The past four tournaments have been a tremendous success, fielding a maximum of 288 players on the Players and Champions courses at Bryan Park. Page is poised to retain the Rivalry Reunion Cup after an impressive 2009 medalist performance by Page alumnus Donald Moore.

This golf tournament was created to benefit two of Greensboro's most notable High Schools in their pursuit of providing better opportunities for student-athletes. Donations from the past four years have supported Page's Athletic Facility Master Plan, specifically the beautiful new concession stand. It has also served as a time for former classmates to share old and make new memories.

Planning is underway for the inaugural 5K race and kiddies' run to be held at Newbridge Bank Park on Saturday, October 9th, at the Grasshopper Stadium. The Greensboro Grasshoppers organization was the tournament's platinum sponsor the past two years. Organizers are assuring the 5K run will provide family fun for all alumni and friends.

For the fifth year, the Neese's Sausage family will sponsor two scholarships per school to worthy student-athletes who have exhibited principled leadership qualities and maintained a solid academic record through their high school years.

The tournament board appreciates all of our corporate sponsors, hole sponsors, volunteers, and players who make the annual event a special day! Please go to www.pagegrimsleygolf.com to register for play, sponsor, or volunteer.....and to read more about the 5K run! Again, don't wait...our capacity field of 288 players has sold out EVERY year. And wear RED!

MICHAEL PARRISH RETIRES

Beloved teacher Michael Parrish's "swan song" was Seussical, the Musical. After 37 years of teaching (at Page in the 1980's and again 2002 - 2010) and staging hundreds of performances, his formal career as high school teacher, mentor, and producer has come to an end. The excellence he has inspired in thousands of students over the years is amazing. The memories he has given students of a "job-well-done-filled-with-tons-of-fun" is as much as any teacher could ever hope for.

Seussical is a musical bringing to life many favorite Dr. Seuss characters, guaranteed to thrill "children of all ages." It was a "main stage" musical, open to all students at Page. About 100 students served in the cast, as technical support, as costumers, as dancers, and as musicians. The powers of friendship, loyalty, family, and community are challenged, but ultimately emerge triumphant in a story that made us all laugh and cry. Michael Parrish produced; parent John Phillips directed and choreographed; and choral teacher Richard Hodges provided musical direction. Former student Kayla McDonagh designed the set, and parents Sarah and Mark Winchell designed the costumes and constructed the set.

Michael is proud to announce that the next teacher to carry on the proud tradition of the Page Playmakers will be Laura Mesec White who designed the lighting for Seussical. He will still be involved at Page in two areas: working with Laura to ensure a smooth transition and serving on the Auditorium Planning Committee. As Michael leaves this career, he plans to explore employment in the private sector in event planning, corporate training, or project management.
